FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

GROPPEL RECEIVES SIGMA PHI EPSILON SCHOLARSHIP

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University senior Kevin Groppe, son of Russell E. and Janice Groppe of Godfrey, was recently selected to receive a $1,000 scholarship from the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation.

Groppe is one of 15 National Competition Scholarship recipients for 1995. Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity is represented on 274 campuses with over 15,000 undergraduate members. Every Sigma Phi Epsilon undergraduate member was eligible to apply, and well over 100 applications were received and judged in the areas of academic achievement, campus and fraternity leadership and financial need.

The Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation will provide over $150,000 this year for scholarships, loans and leadership training. The Foundation has become an important force in the development and fulfillment of the scholarship, leadership, citizenship and personal potential for each member in Sigma Phi Epsilon.

activities in his life will establish good and stable family relations and contribute in his professional and community activities to a strong future of our nation.

A 1992 graduate of Marquette High School in Alton, Groppe is a psychology major and anticipates a career in physical therapy. He is currently serving as chaplain of the Illinois Nu Chapter of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity at Eastern.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 10,500 on-campus students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.
